

A man with dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and dark tie, is looking down at a cigarette in his hand. He is standing in a dark, rainy street at night. In the background, there are blurred lights from cars and streetlights, creating a bokeh effect. The overall atmosphere is somber and reflective.

When I choose to see the good side of things,
I'm not being naive.

It is strategic and necessary.

It's how I've learned to survive
through everything.
