Copyright Office,1963 Creaturely Love Dominic Pettman,2017-04-18 To our modern ears the word creature has wild musky even monstrous connotations And yet the terms creaturely and love taken together have traditionally been associated with theological debates around the enigmatic affection between God and His key creation Man In Creaturely Love Dominic Pettman explores the ways in which desire makes us both more and less human In an eminently approachable work of wide cultural reach and meticulous scholarship Pettman undertakes an unprecedented examination of how animals shape the understanding and expression of love between people

Focusing on key figures in modern philosophy art and literature Nietzsche Salom Rilke Balthus Musil Proust premodern texts and fairy tales Fourier Fournival Ovid and contemporary films and online phenomena Wendy and Lucy Her memes Pettman demonstrates that from pet names to spirit animals and allegories to analogies animals have constantly appeared in our writings and thoughts about passionate desire By following certain charismatic animals during their passage through the love letters of philosophers the romances of novelists the conceits of fables the epiphanies of poets the paradoxes of contemporary films and the digital menageries of the Internet Creaturely Love ultimately argues that in our utilization of the animal in our amorous expression we are acknowledging that what we adore in our beloveds is not only their humanity but their creatureliness
