In this necessary and timely collection, innovative essays by leading scholars in the fields of literature, film, and popular culture explore Barker's contribution to gothic, fantasy, and horror studies, interrogating his creative legacy. The volume consists of an extensive introduction and twelve groundbreaking essays that critically reevaluate Barker's oeuvre. These include in-depth analyses of his celebrated and lesser-known novels, short stories, theme park designs, screen and comic book adaptations, film direction, and production sketches, as well as responses to his material from critics and fan communities. Clive Barker's Dark Imagination reveals the breadth and depth of Barker's distinctive dark vision, which continues to fascinate and flourish. Bloodscripts Elana Gomel, 2003 We live in an increasingly violent world. From suicide terrorists to serial killers, violent subjects challenge our imaginations. We seek answers to our questions on this subject in literature, cinema, and electronic media. In Bloodscripts, Elana Gomel examines how popular culture narratives construct violent subjectivity. Using such various narratives as mystery, horror, detective, and fantasy fiction, as well as accounts of the atrocities perpetuated by serial killers and the Holocaust, Bloodscripts offers a new map of the genres of violence and links the twin obsessions of postmodern culture: crime and genocide. Bloodscripts is a stimulating, original, and accessible account of the narrative construction of the violent subject. It proposes a narrative model that will be of interest to literary critics, cultural scholars, criminologists, and anyone trying to understand the role of violence in postmodern culture. Clive Barker Suzanne J.
