Boomer S Haircut:

The Journeyman Barber, 1910 Of Boomers and Sooners Joann Ellen Sisco, 2012-08-01 It was the land actually that had the power to draw the people from the four directions and even from across the ocean It was the clarion call coming from the place of the red lands It was a call from the dirt red as blood beneath its cover of grassy greenies that was what drew them Many people came to this red land all together on one day and many others were already there The new people staked out their claims but too often prior claims had already been made Both of these groups would earn title to their land by their sweat and by the speed of their horses but mostly by the strength of their endurance and the joining together of their forces Ben Green had made a promise that he would not let go of his portion of the red land that had been handed down to him by his people before him He would keep it be it by the speed of his horses or the accuracy of his marksmanship and when Ben made a promise the world itself could consider it kept because that was the way his pa had trained him FROM GUNSHOT TO HOMESTEAD is book one of an eight book series DEEP FORK RIVER OKLAHOMA TERRITORY This series took place in a unique period of history when new land was deeded on the basis of a gunshot and a footrace The central nugget of land in the Oklahoma Territory was advertised for settlement quarter sections were marked out and on the 22 of April 1889 the local Cavalry and other officials started the race at the shot of a gun On foot on horses in wagons and in buggies they struggled for a place to put down roots Each of these books brings a different family person or in one incident a whole town to settle in the new land The small town fictional town of Prosper was settled by these immigrants and others It is generally thought that this incident was the only one of its kind in history Book one FROM GUNSHOT TO HOMKESTEAD A 22 year old young lady and her father make a night flight to protect a small girl from kidnap Book two UNDER THE REDBUDS An idea born in a Nebraska storm gives birth to a snowball of activity for half a town Book three TREK THROUGH THE WILDERNESS A young Kentucky preacher follows a strange guide with the help of a strong young lady Book four OF BOOMERS AND SOONERS Free land was passed out but some of it was already occupied A man does what he had to do Book five IN OCTOBER SUNSHINE The lady no longer young realized she permitted herself to be a follower all her life It was not her time to lead Book six BEHIND EVERY CLOUD Young victim of circumstances feels she finally deserves a silver lining if she can just turn that cloud around Book seven TO THE PROMISED LAND Young Camille experiences what no girl should experience but some things happen in the best families Book eight WITH A SONG IN THE NIGHT Two young girls who have never met are thrown together in desperate circumstances The Journeyman Barber, 1935 Polk-Husted Directory Co.'s San Jose City and Santa Clara County Directory, 1909 Red Barber Judith R. Hiltner, James R. Walker, 2022-04 2023 SABR Baseball Research Award A Booklist Top 10 Sports Recreation Book Finalist for the 2023 Seymour Medal Finalist for the 2022 CASEY Award Born and raised in rural Mississippi and the even balmier climes of central Florida Red Barber at the age of thirty two became one of New York City s most influential citizens as the play by play announcer for the Brooklyn Dodgers When he arrived in 1939 Barber brought the down home drawl and idioms of his southern roots to the borough where residents said they could walk down any street and never miss a pitch because his voice wafted out of every window and every passing car From his colorful expressions like rhubarb and sitting in the catbird seat to his vivid use of similes a close game was tighter than a new pair of shoes on a rainy day Barber s influence on his contemporaries and the many generations of broadcasters who followed him cannot be overstated But behind all the base hits balls and strikes lies a compelling story that dramatizes the shifting expectations and roles of a public figure the sports broadcaster as he adapted to complex cultural changes throughout the course of twentieth century American life Red Barber follows the trajectory of Barber s long career from radio and television play by play man for the Cincinnati Reds Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees to his work calling college and professional football games his nine year tenure as director of sports for CBS Radio and his second acts as an Episcopal lay reader sportswriter and weekly guest with Bob Edwards on NPR s Morning Edition This talented public figure was also a private man committed to rigorous self examination and willing to evolve and grow under the influence of changing times When the Dodgers first signed Jackie Robinson and smashed the color barrier in Major League Baseball Barber struggled to overcome the racism he had absorbed from his culture as a child But after observing the vicious abuse Robinson endured from opposing fans Barber became an ardent supporter of him and the many Black players who followed Barber was also bothered deeply by the strains that his single minded careerism imposed on his family He was challenged to navigate longtime family tensions after his only child Sarah came out as a lesbian And his primary role during the later years of his life was caretaking for his wife Lylah during her decline from Alzheimer s disease at a time when the ailment was something many families concealed Ultimately Red Barber traces the career of a true radio and television pioneer who was committed to the civic responsibility of mass media Barber firmly believed the most important role of a broadcaster was telling the truth and promoting public well being

"The Great Depression Is Our Lives". Busted Boomers and Identity Crises in Generation X, American Psycho and Fight Club Nadine Klemens,2006-03-07 Thesis M A from the year 2004 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade sehr gut Technical University of Braunschweig language English abstract We don t have a great war in our generation or a great depression but we do we have a great war of the spirit We have a great revolution against the culture The great depression is our lives We have a spiritual depression This is what the nameless narrator of Chuck Palahniuk s 1996 novel Fight Club says to define his generation the age group which has alternately been labeled as Baby Bust Generation MTV Generation Invisible Generation or Generation X All of these terms apply to the birth cohort of the years 1961 to 1981 Since these young people are described by generational scholars as the most diverse generation in sociological history it is not surprising that there are difficulties in finding one common label to define this birth group The opening quote shows that the young people of this birth group seem to be in a spiritual crisis because they no longer have to fight in wars they do not have to fight for causes in short they do not have to struggle through extreme situations as most generations before them had to do Instead they live in a world in which everything seems to be at the ready for them tons of shopping malls and supermarkets that contain anything one can possibly think of or wish for Yet they experience a spiritual crisis As many members of older generations may now well ask How can a world of seemingly endless choices and resources be so disturbing as to throw a whole generation into crisis Three novels that deal with the identity crisis of Generation X are analysed Generation X Tales for an Accelerated Culture 1991 by Douglas Coupland American Psycho 1991 by Bret Easton Ellis and Fight Club 1996 by Chuck Palahniuk According to studies of Generation X literature these three novels are typical of their time as they deal with postmodern or rather consumerist culture Hence life in the postmodern condition presents the characters of the novels with questions and problems to which there is no definite answer They struggle with a fragmented world and therefore the novels show that whereas the generations preceding the Xer birth cohort had issues or events of historical scope and impact that bound them together as a birth group it seems that the issue that binds Generation X together is their struggle with the culture they live in The Square Deal ,1925 American Poland-China Record American Poland-China Record Association,1906 The Journeyman Barber, Hairdresser and Cosmetologist ,1941 A.
