Risk State Sebastian Maslow, Ra Mason, Paul O'Shea, 2016-03-03 The increase of new complex security challenges and the heightening significance of a diverse array of actors has simultaneously posed a challenge to traditional perspectives on international relations and foreign policy and created an opportunity for new concepts to be applied Conventional explanations of Japan's foreign policy have provided us with theoretically predetermined understandings and fallacious predictions Reformulating risk in its application to the study of international relations and foreign policy this volume promises new insights into the analysis of contemporary foreign policy in East Asia and Japan's post Cold War international relations in particular The China-Japan Border Dispute Professor Kimie Hara, Professor Tim F Liao, Dr Krista

Wiegand, 2015-06-28 Crossing disciplinary boundaries this volume offers a rare forum for a serious analysis of the territorial dispute over the Diaoyu Senkaku Islands between China and Japan The volume deconstructs conflicting perspectives on the two sides of the dispute Cutting through the political rhetoric on both sides of the controversy this book analyzes the relevant history international law multilateral relations political agendas and social and collective memory to shed light on this difficult dispute Taken together the chapters of the book propose short term medium term and long term peaceful solutions for going beyond the impasse of the current territorial dispute Contentious Integration Chien-Peng Chung, 2014

China's New Governing Party Paradigm Timothy R. Heath, 2016-05-23 For the first time since its founding in 1921 the Chinese Communist Party CCP has adopted a new paradigm for its role in China Abandoning its former identity as a revolutionary party the CCP now regards itself as a governing party committed to meeting the diverse needs of its people and realizing China's revitalization as a great power To enhance its ability to realize these aims the CCP has enacted extensive political and ideological reforms Central to that effort are changes to how the party develops and oversees strategy and policy Few studies are available on the CCP's adoption of this new identity and of its political implications This book remedies that oversight by explaining the historic context drivers and meaning of the governing party paradigm It explains how adoption of this paradigm is transforming the processes through which the CCP develops strategy and policy Furthermore it differs from many other books in that it is the first to derive its analysis primarily from the study of authoritative Chinese sources The book also provides an extensive array of helpful references including chronologies lists of major strategy documents a glossary and more Accurately understanding the CCP's new role as a governing party requires a firm grasp of how China's leadership formulates documents and implements strategies and policies to improve its governance and further the nation's rejuvenation This book provides such valuable information in one handy volume Managing Global Risks in the Urban Age Yee-Kuang Heng, 2016-03-03 The first full length exposition of what it terms a global city global risks nexus this volume crosses disciplinary boundaries to draw upon research from Security Studies Geography Sociology and Urban Studies Innovative in its approach integrating theories about Global Cities with those positing a Global Risk Society Yee

Kuang Heng positions this research in the midst of two concurrent global trends that will gain more significance in coming years. The world is experiencing the consequences of not only rapid globalisation but also urbanization. In 2008 the UN declared that more than half the world's population was now urban. At the same time highly connected global cities like New York, London, Tokyo, and Singapore also face rapidly spreading global risks such as pandemics and financial crises. Unique in developing a typology of global risks that threaten a global city like Singapore beyond its Asian focus, the book also draws out thematic and policy lessons pertinent to other global cities. Global cities do not simply materialize. They are dependent on a range of stakeholders at various levels that produce and re-produce its command and control capabilities in the face of global risks. Singapore's experiences managing global risks in the financial, aviation, and maritime domains are common concerns shared by many countries and cities that have or aspire to develop similar critical infrastructure. Asia After the "miracle" Selig S. Harrison, Clyde V. Prestowitz, 1998. The Asian economic meltdown that began in 1997 has demonstrated the urgent need for a post-cold war reappraisal of U.S. policy priorities in this critical region. American policy rests on the premise that the United States does not have to choose between economic and security priorities in Asia because the American military presence is valued by regional powers in its own right. But is this premise justified? This timely book presents mini-debates on the key issues facing the United States in Asia together with the recommendations of an Economic Strategy Institute Study Group composed of leading scholars, businessmen, diplomats, and military leaders with Asian experience. Among the wide-ranging recommendations are controversial proposals for a gradual disengagement of U.S. combat forces from Japan and Korea. The sixteen specialists who debate U.S. policy options in background papers prepared for the Study Group present conflicting perspectives on U.S. interests in China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Southeast Asia, and South Asia. In a policy-challenging Overview, editors Selig S. Harrison and Clyde V. Prestowitz Jr. focus on the impact of the cold war on U.S. economic relations with Asia today and on the diminishing need for the forward deployment of U.S. forces resulting from improvements in U.S. airlift and sealift capabilities. The contributors are Doug Bandow, Barry Bosworth, Ted Galen Carpenter, James Clad, Rear Adm. Eugene Carroll Jr., Charles W. Freeman Jr., Chalmers Johnson, Geoffrey Kemp, Paul H. Kreisberg, Nicholas R. Lardy, Martin L. Lasater, Mike Masato, Mochizuki William J. Taylor, Ezra Vogel, Allen S. Whiting, and Jeffrey Winters. Selig S. Harrison is a senior scholar of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars and a fellow of The Century Foundation. His many books on U.S. relations with Asia include The Widening Gulf: Asian Nationalism and U.S. Policy. Clyde V. Prestowitz Jr. is president of the Economic Strategy Institute and former counselor to the Secretary of Commerce. He is the author of Trading Places: How We Allowed Japan to Take the Lead. Political Science Abstracts, 1997. Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17. Bosworth, 2006 During the past half century U S policy in East Asia was guided by a simple dictum avoid the domination of East Asia by any power other than the United States Increasingly however this policy approach seems questionable in a globalizing world a massively changed East Asia and a much deeper U S economic involvement in the region Even as East Asian leaders often tell Americans they want a continued U S presence for security purposes they also fear an American effort to contain China that will put them between a rising regional power and the global superpower creating dangerous tensions that ultimately would threaten the region's golden goose China's powerful economic growth engine Others like some Japanese would welcome a conclusion by the United States that a powerful China ultimately threatens American interests The Post American Century in East Asia addresses major policy problems of East Asia from the management of our relations with China to the North Korean nuclear problem to the growth of East Asian regionalism The book answers how in light of East Asia's growing power and influence the United States can retain influence commensurate with its interests The transformation of the region requires us to ask whether some longstanding perspectives are still relevant as well as what changes are needed in American policy Historical Abstracts Eric H. Boehm, 2000 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004 The Washington Post Index, 1994 American Book Publishing Record, 2004 Rethinking Asia and international relations, 19?? Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 The New York Times Index, 2003 China's Rise and Rethinking International Relations Theory Chengxin Pan, Emilian Kavalski, 2022-02-16 Bringing together leading scholars from Asia and the West this book investigates how the dynamics of China's rise in world politics contributes to theory building in International Relations IR The book demonstrates how the complex and transformative nature of China's advancement is also a point of departure for theoretical innovation and reflection in IR more broadly In doing so the volume builds a strong case for a genuinely global and post Western IR It contends that non Western countries should not only be considered potential sources of knowledge production but also original and legitimate focuses of IR theorizing in their own right Post-Conflict Development in East Asia Brendan M.

Howe, 2016-04-08 East Asia is a region deeply affected by conflict Colonial ideological and national wars have left their scars and legacies on regional international and national governance Yet East Asian post conflict development experiences have been viewed as remarkably successful The three largest economies of East Asia Japan China and South Korea have all experienced dramatic growth but immediately prior to their periods of expansion all experienced the devastating impacts of international conflicts and or civil upheaval These post conflict development success stories do not however tell the whole tale Other states in East Asia and in particular certain regions within some of these states while apparently emerging from similar conflictual backgrounds have experienced far less positive transitions This volume critically assesses measurements of success in East Asian post conflict development from a human centered perspective This involves a major re evaluation of accepted accounts of domestic governance and international relations in East Asia from both a comparative and interdisciplinary viewpoint Case study rich this volume provides policy prescriptions for East Asian donors and actors in an effort to provide Asian solutions for Asian problems

Asia in International Relations Pinar Bilgin, L.H.M. Ling, 2017-02-01 Asia in International Relations decolonizes conventional understandings and representations of Asia in International Relations IR This book opens by including all those geographical and cultural linkages that constitute Asia today but are generally ignored by mainstream IR Covering the Indian subcontinent Turkey the Mediterranean Iran the Arab world Ethiopia and Central Northeast Southeast Asia the volume draws on rich literatures to develop our understanding of power relations in the world's largest continent Contributors de colonize de imperialize and de Cold War the region to articulate an alternative narrative about Asia world politics and IR This approach reframes old problems in new ways with the possibility of transforming them rather than recycling the same old approaches with the same old intractable outcomes
