Fitzgerald, 1987 Devising Theatre with Stan's Cafe Mark Crossley, James Yarker, 2017-10-19 Since it was founded in 1991 British theatre company Stan's Cafe has garnered an international reputation for artistic innovation and prolific eclectic performance projects Their work has toured nationally and internationally with 2003's Of All The People In All The World having been performed in over fifty cities around the world Embracing site specific immersive durational non text based as well as scripted work Stan's Cafe's portfolio defies simple categorization Running through all their work however is a collaborative devising process that champions a playful experimentation with form Devising Theatre with Stan's Cafe reveals and reflects on their theatre making process providing an illuminating and accessible account of their work and the approaches techniques and philosophies which underpin and inspire it Co authored by artistic director James Yarker and Dr Mark Crossley the book places their work within wider context of contemporary theatre and is the perfect companion to anyone looking to make their own original theatre or performance work For theatre students fans and theatre makers Devising Theatre with Stan's Cafe is an inspiring account and practical guide to contemporary performance practice

In Her Own Words Jennifer Kelly, 2013-06-01 This collection of new interviews with twenty five accomplished female composers substantially advances our knowledge of the work experiences compositional approaches and musical intentions of a diverse group of creative individuals With personal anecdotes and sometimes surprising intimacy and humor these wide ranging conversations represent the diversity of women composing music in the United States from the mid twentieth century into the twenty first The composers work in a variety of genres including classical jazz multimedia or collaborative forms for the stage film and video games Their interviews illuminate questions about the status of women composers in America the role of women in musical performance and education the creative process and inspiration the experiences and qualities that contemporary composers bring to their craft and balancing creative and personal lives Candidly sharing their experiences advice and views these vibrant thoughtful and creative women open new perspectives on the prospects and possibilities of making music in a changing world      Talking Music William Duckworth,1995 William Duckworth a cutting edge composer and musicologist himself spent more than a decade visiting the leading lights of new American music beginning with the music s spiritual godfather John Cage and progressing through the latest innovators His goal was to let the composers talk about their work in their own words to show how their personal lives and struggles to create their art colored their output to discuss seriously their aesthetic goals and to analyze their influences The discussions that result are free ranging but always focused revealing the many radically new approaches pioneered by these artists The life of the composer is one of struggle often against incredible odds in pursuit of an individual vision that is often misunderstood if not openly maligned by mainstream culture It is rare that a sympathetic ear is given to the composer s concerns rarer still that the composer gets a chance to discuss craft with another craftsman These enlightening interviews filled with personal revelations and the unique voice of each composer will delight fans of twentieth century music and the avant garde as well as anyone interested in the life of the arts      Talking Dancing Maura Keefe,2002      Artbibliographies Modern ,2004
