centuries later reveals much about the world in which they lived This inaugural volume features vivid and charming details from the wealth of manuscripts in the collections of the J Paul Getty Museum and the British Library along with a lively text together both word and image provide an accessible and delightful introduction to the imagination of the medieval world Future volumes in this series will cover such topics as costumes portraiture and marginalia among others

The Grand Medieval Bestiary Christian Heck, Rémy Cordonnier, 2012 The Grand Medieval Bestiary Animals in Illuminated Manuscripts is a splendid pageant of the animal kingdom as the Middle Ages saw it illustrated with miniatures of every period and style many never before published Noted art historian Christian Heck explains that the prevalence of animals in illuminated manuscripts reflects their importance in medieval thought an importance due in part to the agricultural society of that age in which a variety of species and not just docile pets were the daily companions of man The main part of the book explores the complex and fascinating iconography of the individual creatures most frequently depicted by medieval miniaturists It is arranged in the manner of a proper bestiary with essays on one hundred animals alphabetized by their Latin names The selection includes a number of creatures that would now be considered fantastic including the griffin the mantichore and of course the fabled unicorn tamable only by a gentle maiden
