Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries Traugott Koch, Ingeborg T. Solvberg, 2004-02-26 Welcome to ECDL 2003 and to these conference proceedings featuring all the papers presented at the 7th European Conference on Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries Following Pisa 1997 Heraklion 1998 Paris 1999 Lisbon 2000 Da stad 2001 and Rome 2002 ECDL 2003 in Trondheim reaches some of the northernmost shores of the continent Being the seventh in an annual series of conferences represents for better and for worse a considerable tradition in the fast changing world of digital library related research and development It is still a difficult and slow job to change traditional forms and formats of communication at and related to scientific conferences and also to change participants expectations Yet each new conference builds upon the topics and communities involved in previous events and inherits the commitment to quality established by its predecessors Each year ECDL has to live up to its role of being the major European forum focusing on digital libraries and associated technical practical and social issues bringing diverse disciplines and application communities together There are still challenges in this respect ahead of us but the quality and range of papers and other contributions combined with opportunities for debate should ensure that ECDL 2003 sets high standards for the future

Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries Rachel Heery, Liz Lyon, 2005-01-11 We are delighted to present the ECDL 2004 Conference proceedings from the 8th European Conference on Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries at the University of Bath Bath UK This followed an impressive and geographically dispersed series of locations for previous events Pisa 1997 Heraklion 1998 Paris 1999 Lisbon 2000 Darmstadt 2001 Rome 2002 and Trondheim 2003 The conference reflected the rapidly evolving landscape of digital libraries both in technology developments and in the focus of approaches to implementation An emphasis on the requirements of the individual user and of diverse and distributed user communities was apparent In addition the conference programme began to address possibly for the first time the associated themes of e-research e-science and e-learning and their relationship to digital libraries We observed increasing commonality in both the distributed information architectures and the technical standards that underpin global infrastructure developments Digital libraries are integral to this information landscape and to the creation of increasingly powerful tools and applications for resource discovery and knowledge extraction Digital libraries support and facilitate the data and information flows within the scholarly knowledge cycle and provide enabling functionality for both learners and researchers The varied and innovative research activities presented at ECDL 2004 demonstrate the exciting potential of this very fast moving field The 148 papers 43 posters 5 panels 14 tutorials and 4 workshops submitted this year were once again of the highest quality Nursing Informatics 2016 Walter Sermeus, Paula M. Procter, 2016-07-15 As the importance of electronic and digital devices in the provision of healthcare increases so does the need for interdisciplinary collaboration to make the most of the new technical possibilities which have become available This book presents the proceedings of the 13th International Conference on Nursing Informatics held in Geneva Switzerland in June 2016 This biennial international conference provides one of the most important opportunities for healthcare professionals from around the world to gather and exchange expertise in the research and practice of both basic and applied nursing informatics The theme of this 13th conference is eHealth for All Every Level Collaboration From Project to Realization The book includes all full papers as well as workshops panels and poster summaries from the conference Subjects covered include a wide range of topics from robotic assistance in managing medication to intelligent wardrobes and from low cost wearables for fatigue and back stress management to big data analytics for optimizing work processes and the book will be of interest to all those working in the design and provision of healthcare today Information Literacy: Lifelong Learning and Digital Citizenship in the 21st Century Serap Kurbanoglu, Sonja Spiranec, Esther Grassian, Diane Mizrachi, Ralph Catts, 2014-12-13 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the European Conference on Information Literacy ECIL 2014 held in Dubrovnik Croatia in October 2014 The 93 revised full papers presented together with two keynotes and one invited paper were carefully reviewed and selected from 283 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on theoretical framework related concepts research rights and ethics children higher education education and instruction assessment and evaluation libraries different aspects Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries, 2001 Index of Conference Proceedings British Library.
