

Brave New World: A Dialectical Journal

By: [Student Name]

Chapter and Page Number	Entry and Response Type
Chapter 1, Page 17 (Entry 1): "Waste and punishment, reward and positive reinforcement is the strict rule that keeps our society completely sound and orderly founded upon the strictest of the laws of scientific reinforcement applied individually. What machine could nature be planning on producing?"	Comment: I am 1.17. My thoughts and feelings about this chapter: John's world seems much more chaotic and less controlled than the world we live in today. It seems like a dystopian world where everything is controlled and regulated. The conditioning seems to be a way to keep the society in order and prevent chaos. The world seems to be a place where everything is planned and controlled, and there is no room for individuality or freedom.
Chapter 1, Page 22 (Entry 2): "The only reason for the existence of the state is to maintain order and discipline. Without this, the world would be a chaotic mess. The state is the only thing that can keep the world in order and prevent chaos."	Question: I wonder how the state can maintain order and discipline in a world where everyone is so different and has their own desires and needs. How can the state control everyone's behavior and thoughts?
Chapter 1, Page 23 (Entry 3): "I am 1.18. The world is a chaotic mess. The state is the only thing that can keep the world in order and prevent chaos."	Method: I would like to see the world from the perspective of someone who is not part of the state. I would like to see how the state controls the world and how the people feel about it. I would like to see the world from the perspective of someone who is not part of the state.
Chapter 1, Page 24 (Entry 4): "The world is a chaotic mess. The state is the only thing that can keep the world in order and prevent chaos."	Clarify + Predict: I wonder how the state can maintain order and discipline in a world where everyone is so different and has their own desires and needs. How can the state control everyone's behavior and thoughts?
