Divinity Old Testament Marking Schemes:

The Bible and the Anointing of the Sick (A Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments) Michael Patrick Barber, 2025-07-22 The Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments series provides readers with a deeper appreciation of God's gifts and call in the sacraments through a renewed encounter with God's Word. In this addition to the series Michael Barber offers a biblical approach to anointing of the sick drawing from both the Old and New Testaments. This book unpacks the riches of the Scriptures to explain what true healing in Christ involves. In addition Barber demonstrates how an exegetical approach to the sacrament can advance our understanding of it. Topics include the biblical significance of oil, the relationship of physical healing and spiritual healing including the forgiveness of sins, sin and death, Christ as the New Adam, the continuation of Jesus's ministry in the church, the power of sacral anointing, Christ's fulfillment of messianic hopes and participation in Christ's royal, priestly and prophetic mission. The book is suitable for classroom use and parish ministry. Series editors Timothy C. Gray and John Sehorn teach at the Augustine Institute Graduate School of Theology and Gray is also president of the Augustine Institute. What is the doctrine of the covenant of redemption? Why does John Gill 1697-1771, an English Baptist pastor and theologian, regard this doctrine as the kernel in his systematic theology? This book explicates how core theological doctrines in the Bible, e.g., the doctrine of God, the Trinity, Christology, and soteriology, are integrated in the doctrine of the covenant of redemption from the biblical and theological perspective of John Gill. From his long pastoral experience and over fifty years of rich writing, Gill demonstrates that a careful investigation of the Bible and of God the Trinity makes him love the reality of the covenant of redemption in eternity, which is ultimately revealed by the gospel of Jesus Christ. Gill sees those who are in the gospel of Jesus Christ as the ones through whom the eternal reality of the covenant of redemption is manifested to the saved. Gill also encourages those who are in Christ to see the
