She brings him pictures, portraits of faces from different historical eras. During his recovery, he spends time analyzing the collection that Marta provides him. It's clear that Grant adopts Carr's and Elton's methodology into solving this case and without either of them it wouldn't be possible. He came across a picture of Richard III, who had accusations of killing his two nephews; his Brother Edward IV's sons. It is evident that Grant takes pride in his skills as an inspector and speculates that Edward III is not the perpetrator of the murders. From that point he undertakes the task of learning British history. Finding clues and piecing them together, disregarding
