

Summary

Eldest is the second book in American author Christopher Paolini's Inheritance Cycle, the popular young adult fantasy series that consists of Eragon (2003), Eldest (2005), Brisingr (2008), and Inheritance (2011). This installment follows Eragon's continuing adventures as he and his dragon, Saphira, take on new responsibilities in their fight against the despotic king, Galbatorix. Paolini also wrote a collection of short stories titled The Fork, the Witch, and the Worm (2018), which is set in the same universe. The Inheritance Cycle is also accompanied by a fictional guide for new dragon riders titled Eragon's Guide to Alagaësia (2009), as well as a spin-off series whose first installment, Murtagh, was published in 2023.

Paolini's work is heavily influenced by classic works of epic fantasy by authors such as J.R.R. Tolkien. A New York Times bestselling author, Paolini has also earned a place in the Guinness Book of Records as the youngest author of a bestselling book series. The Inheritance Cycle has received multiple awards and nominations, and Eldest in particular won the 2006 Quill Award in Young Adult Literature. The novel uses the protagonist's adventures and personal growth to explore themes such as The Complexities of Power and Morality, The Importance of Empathy, and The Emotional Impact of Injury and Disability.

This guide refers to the 2005 Kindle edition.

Language Note: Within the context of Paolini's work, the term "dwarf" refers specifically to fictional beings who, like dragons and witches, are often found in epic fantasy literature. In this context, the term does not refer to a condition or disability, and no derogatory connotations are intended. To avoid confusion, this guide capitalizes words that refer to nonhuman characters, like Dwarves and Elves.

Plot Summary

Eldest alternates between the third-person limited perspectives of Eragon, the series' protagonist; his cousin Roran, who takes on a more significant role in this book; and Nasuada, the new leader of the Varden rebels. The story takes place in the fictional world of Alagaësia, which is ruled by the tyrannical Galbatorix and inhabited by humans, Dwarves, and Elves.
