
DRI CBCP Exam practice Questions with Complete Solutions

What message does your body language send to your audience while on camera? Correct Answer-Your feelings manifest physically, so always "check in" with your physical presentation.

Is adhering to stereotypes recommended in acting auditions? Correct Answer-No, breaking stereotypes, like giving an accountant a vibrant personality, can make you more noticeable in auditions.

What is a common misconception actors have during auditions? Correct Answer-Actors often play it too safe, thinking they can't afford to make a mistake, but courage and risk-taking are valued.

What is the difference between theatre and film performances according to training for the camera? Correct Answer-Theatre is interactive with the audience, while film performance must be an independent reality that the camera captures.

Why do directors often say "No acting please!" to actors? Correct Answer-Directors want actors to create a complete, personal reality for the camera, avoiding any overt performance awareness.

How does the camera impact an actor's performance? Correct Answer-The camera records microscopic details and thoughts, demanding a complete personal reality from the actor.
