Cyprian The Bishop Routledge Early Church Monographs:

Cyprian the Bishop J. Patout Burns Jr.,2002-09-11 This is the first up to date accessible study on the rule of Cyprian as the Bishop of Carthage in the 250s AD It controversially shows that Cyprian radically enforced the primary emphasis on the unity of the church interpreting loyalty in the community as fidelity to Christ It uses cultural anthropology to examine the impact of Cyprian s policy during the Decian persecution Cyprian attempted to steer the middle ground between compromise and traditionalism and succeeded by defining the boundary between the empire and the church J Patout Burns Jr concentrates on social structures to reveal the logic of Cyprian s plan the basis for its success in his time and why it later failed This book will be of great interest to classicists ancient historians and sociologists as well as theologians

Documents of the Rise of Christianity Kevin W. Kaatz,2019-03-14 An introduction to the history of early Christianity this reference provides roughly 60 primary source documents from the first five centuries of the Christian Era each accompanied by explanatory material Christianity has been one of the most powerful influences on world history and for this reason the world of the early Christians figures prominently in film fiction and popular culture The first centuries of Christianity provided the foundation for the faith institutions of today this book examines the history of early Christianity through its use of primary texts written by early Christians In doing so it helps readers to understand that multiple sects of Christianity competed for dominance and it sheds light on the struggles of early Christians that their differences entailed The book covers the first five centuries of the Christian Era with sections devoted to each century Some 60 primary source documents appear within those sections and each is accompanied by background information This chronological arrangement helps readers to understand how Christianity evolved over time and it provides insights into the theological debates and persecutions that marked the lives of early Christians and characterized the early Church

Caesar and the Lamb, Second Edition George Kalantzis,2025-05-30 Through the available patristic writings Caesar and the Lamb focuses on the attitudes of the earliest Christians on war and military service Kalantzis provides the reader with many new translations of pre Constantinian texts and tells the story of the struggle of the earliest church to bear witness to the nations that enveloped them as they transformed the dominant narratives of citizenship loyalty freedom power and control Kalantzis examines writings on war and military service in the first three centuries of the Christian church in an organized manner but the ways the communities of Christ at the margins of power and society thought of themselves and the state are not presented here through the lens of antiquarian curiosity At the heart of Caesar and the Lamb is a desire to understand the world in which Christianity arose and to ask questions of the past that may help us understand the early character of the Christian faith with the hope that such an enterprise will also help us evaluate its expression in our own time

Early Christian Epistolarity ,2025-11-20 Many surviving early Christian writings are in the form of letters some sent by and to those named others imagined What did the authors copyists and later collectors intend by authoring or reworking letters as opposed to other genres How did the first or subsequent readers respond differently perhaps than to a novel or history In her Radboud Prestige Lectures in New Testament published in this volume Judith Lieu explores these questions by drawing on the concept of epistolarity Her lectures are followed by chapters by leading experts in the field who engage her work from different angles finding points of contact and potential conversation between different texts and authors together with possibilities for further exploration and application Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003 Frances Margaret Young, Mark J.
