The Shadow of the Wind Carlos Ruiz Zafon, 2014-09-24 Anyone who enjoys novels that are scary erotic touching tragic and thrilling should rush right out to the nearest bookstore and pick up The Shadow of the Wind Really you should Michael Dirda The Washington Post Wondrous masterful The Shadow of the Wind is ultimately a love letter to literature intended for readers as passionate about storytelling as its young hero Entertainment Weekly Editor's Choice This is one gorgeous read Stephen King I still remember the day my father took me to the Cemetery of Forgotten Books for the first time Barcelona 1945 A city slowly heals in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War and Daniel an antiquarian book dealer's son who mourns the loss of his mother finds solace in a mysterious book entitled The Shadow of the Wind by one Julián Carax But when he sets out to find the author's other works he makes a shocking discovery someone has been systematically destroying every copy of every book Carax has written In fact Daniel may have the last of Carax's books in existence Soon Daniel's seemingly innocent quest opens a door into one of Barcelona's darkest secrets an epic story of murder madness and doomed love

The Shadow of the Wind Carlos Ruiz Zafón, 2004 Hidden in the heart of the old city of Barcelona is the cemetery of lost books a labyrinthine library of obscure and forgotten titles that have long gone out of print To this library a man brings his 10 year old son Daniel one cold morning in 1945 Daniel is allowed to choose one book from the shelves and pulls out La Sombra del Viento by Julian Carax But as he grows up several people seem inordinately interested in his find Then one night as he is wandering the old streets once more Daniel is approached by a figure who reminds him of a character from La Sombra del Viento a character who turns out to be the devil This man is tracking down every last copy of Carax's work in order to burn them What begins as a case of literary curiosity turns into a race to find out the truth behind the life and death of Julian Carax and to save those he left behind A page turning exploration of obsession in literature and love and the places that obsession can lead Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke Braber, Jeroen Dera, Jos Joosten, Maarten

Steenmeijer, 2025-10-01 For many literature and marketing are considered opposite phenomena This book discusses cases in which the two are closely connected It argues that literature is subject to the same mechanisms as other commercial products our experience of literary texts is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors From the early modern period onwards literary authors and their texts are constantly branded and have been both the object and the trailblazer of a complex marketing process The authors of this volume analyze this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions Branding Books Across the Ages seeks to show how literary scholars understand branding a phenomenon that has long been intertwined with literature The Shadow of the Wind Carlos Ruiz Zafon, 2024-11-07 De
