It's Possible! Pati Montgomery, Angela Hanlin, 2024-12-17 Applying the findings from the science of reading as well as the research on school leadership and highly effective schools authors Pati Montgomery and Angela Hanlin guide principals and leaders on how to build systems and structures needed to ensure quality literacy instruction Principals and leaders can implement the science of reading support teachers and increase literacy proficiency for all K-8 educational leaders will use this book to Understand how to design a tiered literacy intervention program Gather and interpret assessment data to ensure student literacy is on target Provide professional development that best supports teachers Create a quality master schedule Collaborate with colleagues to provide equitable reading instruction for all students Contents Foreword by Jan Hasbrouck Introduction Chapter 1 Getting Started With Structured Literacy Instruction Chapter 2 Implementing Universal Instruction Chapter 3 Creating a Comprehensive Assessment Plan Chapter 4 Intervening Quickly Chapter 5 Conducting Effective Data Analysis Chapter 6 Aligning Instructional Strategies With Data Chapter 7 Prioritizing Ongoing Professional Development for Educators Chapter 8 Collaborating Through Shared Leadership Epilogue It's Possible Appendix A Science of Reading Overview Appendix B Lesson Plan Template Appendix C Performance Level Profiles With Small Group Suggestions References and Resources Index Implementing Response to Intervention Susan L. Hall, 2007-11-28 I loved it We in the field are in need of this type of book Jill Gildea Director of Curriculum Instruction Libertyville School District IL Clearly outlines how schools can work collaboratively toward creating schoolwide learning environments where effective RTI practices are implemented and data is used to inform instructional decisions about students Alice Hom Principal Yung Wing Elementary P S 124 New York City NY Even as an administrator who has been trained in RTI I found the book to be both interesting and informative I have told other administrators to keep an eye out for it Jennifer Cruz Principal Mirage Elementary School Glendale AZ Learn how to launch RTI successfully and improve student outcomes significantly As a research based model for improving reading achievement Response to Intervention RTI has demonstrated dramatic results in elementary and middle schools This practical guide provides a clear vision of what RTI looks like in practice and illustrates how educators can use this highly effective approach to help students acquire grade appropriate reading skills or make sure students receive the support they need through special education services The author presents an accessible step by step action plan for putting the RTI process in motion emphasizes the critical role administrators play in ensuring successful implementation in their schools and helps school leaders Formulate a comprehensive assessment plan that includes an assessment calendar and a data management system Design a yearlong staff development plan to train teachers in using data for making instructional decisions Use data in grade level teacher and parent meetings Motivate staff for optimum success without overwhelming them This authoritative text charts a straightforward course for strengthening students literacy skills and helping all youngsters become successful enthusiastic readers

Biobehavioral Measures of Dyslexia David B. Gray, James F. Kavanagh, 1985      Learning and Transfer Effects of Word Structure and Phonics Training with First Grade and Learning Disabilities Program Students Bertram Chiang, 1979

54th Yearbook of the National Reading Conference Beth Maloch, 2005      Identification of Simple and Compound Vowels by First Graders Ouida Marina Wright, 1970      Yearbook of the National Reading Conference National Reading Conference (U.S.), 2005      Aphasiology Patrick Doyle, 2002-05-02 The First Annual Clinical Aphasiology Conference CAC was convened in Albuquerque in 1971 It was attended by a small group of primarily practicing clinicians dedicated to meeting the human service needs of their clients while recognizing the importance of contributing to the collective knowledge base of their discipline by providing empirical evidence supporting the links between their clinical interventions and outcomes Thirteen years later Barlow Hays and Nelson 1984 would describe in their now seminal publication The Scientist Practitioner an integrated model of applied behavioral research its strategies and methods and the role of the practitioner in the acquisition of knowledge directed toward improving clinical procedures and outcomes By this time 13 Volumes of CAC publications had already been published and comprised the single largest source of applied clinical data addressing the nature of aphasia and its clinical management These documents represented the product of the scientist practitioner model in action prior to its formalization by Barlow et al and provide a rich source of evidence supporting the efficacy of aphasia rehabilitation Unfortunately these and subsequent CAC publications remain unavailable to the larger clinical and scientific community due to their limited distribution Much has changed in the ensuing years Indeed many of the healthcare delivery systems in which aphasia rehabilitation is now practiced in 2002 severely restrict the frequency and duration of clinical services Increasingly practitioners are required to be more accountable for their clinical outcomes and to measure behavioral change in units that represent meaningful differences to consumers Now more than ever it is critical that the scientist practitioner model be promoted in order to better serve individuals with aphasia and to further advance the collective knowledge and evidence base of the discipline Now more than ever the available evidence needs to be disseminated as broadly as possible These goals are in keeping with the mission of CAC as envisioned by its founding members and remain the focused commitment of its many participants steering committee and publication board In keeping with these goals the papers that appear in this special edition of Aphasiology were selected based upon their theoretical importance clinical relevance and scientific merit from among the many platform and poster presentations comprising the 31st Annual Clinical Aphasiology Conference held in Santa Fe New Mexico in 2001 Each paper was peer reviewed by the Editorial Consultants and Associate Editors acknowledged herein consistent with the standards of Aphasiology and the rigours of merit review that represent this indexed archival journal that is accessible to clinicians and scientists all over the world

Reading Instruction for Students who are at Risk Or Have Disabilities William D. Bursuck, Mary Damer, 2007

Organized according to the Reading First categories of reading development and instruction as presented in the report of the National Reading Panel this exciting and timely new text presents teaching strategies for children at risk including children of poverty children for whom English is not their primary language and children with learning and behavioral disabilities These are the children No Child Left Behind challenges teachers to serve more effectively The book is more than a list of teaching strategies that are scientifically validated the scientifically validated practices included are integrated into a systematic teaching process that stresses the use of student outcome data within authentic classroom contexts to guide practice The teaching strategies have been field tested with at risk children in both rural and urban teaching settings Most of the strategies have resulted from work the authors did in their recent four year federally funded model demonstration grant in which they have implemented an extensive reading problem prevention model in grades K 3 in three inner city schools Thus the teaching strategies in the book are ones that the authors implemented every day with at risk children not just findings from research articles Features of this First Edition Include Content organized around the five components validated by the National Reading Panel phonemic awareness phonics fluency vocabulary and comprehension Readers learn how to use DIBELS and other curriculum based assessment results for early identification of children at risk of reading failure and to monitor student progress A unique feature is using DIBELS assessments to pinpoint student skill development as they acquire alphabetic principle Accompanying DVD shows teacher explicitly teaching letter sound recognition regular word decoding sight words multisyllable word reading passage reading vocabulary and comprehension Text explains how to use Differentiated Instruction to maximize learning for all students Specific strategies are detailed for implementing Response To Intervention RTI multi tier instruction during the reading block Examines building vocabulary knowledge through direct and indirect teaching strategies Comprehension strategies identified by the National Reading Panel that help students derive meaning from text are emphasized Strategies for individualizing instruction for adolescents and children who are bilingual and or ESL are included within each chapter Effective strategies for managing classroom behavior including instruction groups are provided so that student behavior does not interfere with reading instruction     Fading in the Removal of a Redundant Stimulus Dimension in Reading Charles F.
