

Introduce your students to writing workshop with 8 units each with complete lesson plans!

Unit 3 Goals

By the end of this unit, students should be able to...

- Independently select a topic for a how-to book and create the book using words and pictures
- Write detailed steps to explain to the reader how to do a single task
- List the supplies and materials the reader needs to complete the task (and attempt to use them)
- Use transition words at least twice in a paragraph
- Draw and label detailed pictures to accompany the steps
- With support, write an appropriate introduction for a how-to book
 - Make changes to their own work and revise, and suggest changes to the work collaboratively
- Use writing conventions (options, punctuation) and spelling strategies

Lesson 18: Writing with Lots of Detail

Objective & Standards

Procedures

Students introduce all for a bit longer than usual?

Writing, you have been learning about how to stretch out a story by having your characters try out different solutions to a problem or solution that arises. Today I'm going to teach you another way to stretch out a story.

Can you think of a story that you have read that has a lot of detail? (This teacher shows an example that has a lot of detail.)
