

ANSWER SHEET OF CONSUMER PROTECTION ASSIGNMENT

Question no 1 Briefly describe any one ADR mechanism for out of court settlement of consumer disputes.

Answer =

One of the ADR mechanisms used for out-of-court settlement of consumer disputes is arbitration. Let me explain:

- Arbitration: In arbitration, the parties involved in a dispute agree to resolve their issues with binding effect through a private process. Instead of going to a national court of law, they appoint a neutral third party (an arbitrator) who acts in a judicial manner. The arbitrator makes a decision in private, and this decision is legally binding on both parties. Arbitration is commonly used in civil, commercial, industrial, and family disputes. It offers a less formal, less expensive, and less time-consuming alternative to traditional court trials. Parties can reach innovative solutions that a court may not be legally permitted to enforce. By opting for arbitration, parties can save time, money, and maintain more control over the outcome of their dispute<sup>1</sup>.

Question no 2 Who can file a complaint under the CPA, 1986 and on what ground can he do so.

Answer=

Under the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 (CPA), several parties have the right to file a complaint. Let's explore who these parties are and the grounds on which they can file complaints:

1. Consumers: Any individual who purchases goods or avails services for personal use or self-employment qualifies as a consumer under the CPA. This includes both paid and partially paid transactions<sup>1</sup>.
2. Voluntary Consumer Associations: Recognized consumer associations, whether or not the aggrieved consumer is a member of the association, can file complaints on behalf of consumers<sup>12</sup>.
3. Government Authorities:
  - Central Government or State Government: They have the authority to file complaints on behalf of consumers.
  - Legal Heirs or Representatives: In case of the death of a consumer, their legal heir or representative can file a complaint<sup>12</sup>.
