

CHAPTER 11: Gene Expression

Recall that gene information codes for the proteins a cell needs for structure & function.

*But not all proteins are needed all the time.

*How does a cell control when & which proteins are made???

Principles of Life David M. Hillis, 2012 For sample chapters a video interview with David Hillis and more information visit www.whfreeman.com/hillispreview Sinauer Associates and W H Freeman are proud to introduce Principles of Life Written in the spirit of the reform movement that is reinvigorating the introductory majors course Principles of Life cuts through the thicket of excessive detail and factual minutiae to focus on what matters most in the study of biology today Students explore the most essential biological ideas and information in the context of the field s defining experiments and are actively engaged in analyzing research data The result is a textbook that is hundreds of pages shorter and significantly less expensive than the current majors introductory books

What Is Life? Jay Phelan, Jennifer Warner, Meredith Norris, 2009-04-03 Jay Phelan s What Is Life A Guide to Biology is written in a delightfully readable style that communicates complex ideas to non biology majors in a clear and approachable manner After reading Phelan s book students will understand why they would want to know and talk about science His skillful style includes asking stimulating questions called Q questions which encourage the student to keep reading to find the answer and will illuminate just how relevant science is to their life Visit the What Is Life preview site at www.whfreeman.com/phelanpreview

Human Heredity Michael R. Cummings, Nancy Shontz, 1997 This introduction to human heredity genetics for the non science major requires no previous exposure to biology chemistry or mathematics It covers the latest research and technological advances in human genetics and the implications of this knowledge on the human condition social cultural and ethical Now full color throughout the Fourth Edition includes significant content revision and features chapter opening prologues more clinical material woven throughout the text and less technical jargon Short case studies and Internet activities end many chapters and end of chapter exercise sets are new Biology Joseph P.
