

Electrical License Examination Guide

The information in this guide is provided by the Licensing Unit of the Department of Labor and Industry to ensure that applicants for personal electrician licenses administered by the department understand basic qualifications, knowledge areas, and examination criteria and format to enable them to successfully complete requirements to become licensed. Although this document contains a significant amount of detail, it should not be construed by applicants to be inclusive of all information necessary to successfully make application, pass a license examination, and subsequently become licensed by the department. It is the applicant's responsibility to adequately prepare to successfully complete the license examination process.

The examination question format, degree of difficulty, and length of examination has been in effect since January 1, 2021.

The 2020 National Electrical Code® became effective November 17, 2020 and is the code edition used for the questions in the electrical license examinations.

The Lineman license examination is based on the 2017 National Electrical Safety Code®.
