Boeken Der Kleine Zielen De Kleine Zielen De Louis Couperus:

Louis Couperus en de boeken der kleine zielen Willem G. van Nouhuys, 1887 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library, 1977 Literature of the Low Countries Reinder Meijer, 2012-12-06 In any definition of terms Dutch literature must be taken to mean all literature written in Dutch thus excluding literature in Frisian even though Friesland is part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in the same way as literature in Welsh would be excluded from a history of English literature Similarly literature in Afrikaans South African Dutch falls outside the scope of this book as Afrikaans from the moment of its birth out of seventeenth century Dutch grew up independently and must be regarded as a language in its own right Dutch literature then is the literature written in Dutch as spoken in the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the so called Flemish part of the Kingdom of Belgium that is the area north of the linguistic frontier which runs east west through Belgium passing slightly south of Brussels For the modern period this definition is clear enough but for former times it needs some explanation What do we mean for example when we use the term Dutch for the medieval period In the Middle Ages there was no standard Dutch language and when the term Dutch is used in a medieval context it is a kind of collective word indicating a number of different but closely related Frankish dialects The most important of those were the dialects of the duchies of Limburg and Brabant and of the counties of Flanders and Holland

Transgressive Itineraries Marc Maufort, 2003 The fast growing body of postcolonial drama is progressively gaining its just recognition in the twentieth century canon of English language plays From the vantage point of various samplings along the Trans Pacific axis linking English Canada Australia and New Zealand this monograph seeks to document the significance of this emerging postcolonial theater More specifically it examines the myriad ways in which over the last two decades representative mainstream ethnic and First Nations playwrights have dramatized Europe's Other in its multiple guises In their efforts to match new content with innovative form these artists have followed transgressive itineraries redrawing the boundaries of conventional Western stage realism Their new aesthetics often relies on techniques akin to Homi Bhabha's notions of hybridity and mimicry The present study offers detailed analyses of the modes of hybridization through which Judith Thompson Louis Nowra Tomson Highway Jack Davis Hone Kouka and other prominent writers have articulated subtle forms of psychic grotesque and mythic magic realism Their legacy will undoubtedly affect the postcolonial dramaturgies of the twenty first century Janus at the Millennium Thomas F. Shannon, Johan P. Snapper, 2004-05-26 This volume contains a selection of articles originally presented at the Tenth Interdisciplinary Conference on Netherlandic Studies These revised contributions relating to the common theme of Janus and the perspective of time examine Dutch language and culture from the U S Belgium and the Netherlands History in Dutch Studies Robert B. Howell, Jolanda Vanderwal Taylor, 2003 History in Dutch Studies re considers the central role of history within the discipline of Dutch Studies as viewed from a range of specializations within the field Contributions by scholars of Dutch history art history literature and linguistics all illustrate how the past and one's theories and views of history affect the practice of each part of the discipline One reflection of the history of the Low Countries in Dutch Studies is the range of the field it is interpreted broadly in this volume to include studies of Afrikaans as well as Dutch literature poetry as well as prose in light of their histories the history of Flanders and that of the Netherlands approaches within Dutch linguistics as well as a history of language contact and its influence on Dutch This breadth continues in the range of institutions and nationalities that are represented The volume presents work from major scholars from the Netherlands Belgium and South Africa as well as from the United States of America These articles therefore provide a good cross section of ongoing research in the Netherlandic Studies the world over

Doing Double Dutch Elke Brems, Orsolya Réthelyi, Ton van Kalmthout, 2017-05-22 The importance of a minor language in the field of world literature Dutch literature is increasingly understood as a network of texts and poetics connected to other languages and literatures through translations and adaptations In this book a team of international researchers explores how Dutch literary texts cross linguistic historical geophysical political religious and disciplinary borders and reflects on a wide range of methods for studying these myriad border crossings As a result this volume provides insight into the international dissemination of Dutch literature and the position of a smaller less translated language within the field of world literature The title Doing Double Dutch evokes a popular rope skipping game in which two people turn two long jump ropes in opposite directions while a third person jumps them A fitting metaphor for how literature circulates internationally two dynamic spheres the source culture and the target culture engage one another in a complex pattern of movement resulting in a new literary work translation or adaptation formed somewhere in the middle Contributors Chiara Beltrami Gottmer American International School of Rotterdam Peter Boot Huygens ING Pieter Boulogne KU Leuven Elke Brems KU Leuven Michel De Dobbeleer University of Ghent Caroline de Westenholz Louis Couperus Museum Gillis Dorleijn University of Groningen Wilken Engelbrecht Palack University Olomouc Veerle Fraeters University of Antwerp Maud Gonne KU Leuven Christine Hermann University of Vienna Peter Kegel Huygens ING Tessa Lobbes Utrecht University Marijke Meijer Drees University of Groningen Reine Meylaerts KU Leuven Marco Prandoni University of Bologna Marion Prinse Utrecht University Orsolya Réthelyi E tv s Lor nd University Budapest Huygens ING Diana Sanz Roig Universitat Pompeu Fabra Rita Schlusemann Utrecht University Matthieu Sergier Universit Saint Louis Brussels Natalia Stachura Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan Janek Urbaniak University of Wrocław St phanie Vanasten UCL Louvain la Neuve Ton van Kalmthout Huygens ING Suzanne van Putten Brons Herbert Van Uffelen

Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1971 Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature Theo D'haen, 2019-07-25 The recent return of world literature to the centre of literary studies has entailed an increased attention to non European literatures but in turn has also further marginalized Europe's smaller literatures Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature shows how Dutch language literature from its very beginnings in the Middle Ages to the present has not only always taken its cue from the major literary traditions of Europe and beyond but has also actively contributed to and influenced these traditions The contributors to this book focus on key works and authors providing a concise yet highly readable history of Dutch language literature and demonstrating how this literature is anchored in world literature Over boeken en schrijvers Anna de Savornin Lohman, 1903 Situated Testimonies Laurie J. Sears, 2013-06-30 The Indonesian writer Pramoedya Ananta Toer made a distinction between a downstream literary reality and an upstream historical reality Pramoedya suggested that literature has an effect on the upstream flow of history and that it can in fact change history In Situated Testimonies Laurie Sears illuminates this process by considering a selection of Dutch Indies and Indonesian literary works that span the twentieth century and beyond and by showing how authors like Louis Couperus and Maria Dermo t help retell and remodel history Sears sees certain literary works as situated testimonies bringing ineffable experiences of trauma into narrative form and preserving something of the dread and enchantment that animated the past These literary works offer a method of reading the emotional traces that historians may fail to witness or record traces that elude archival constructions where political factors or colonial conditions have influenced processes of what is preserved and how it is shaped Sears use of Donna Haraway's notion of situatedness reiterates the idea that all of us speak from somewhere Testimony especially eyewitness testimony is a gold standard in historical methodology and the authors of literary works are eyewitnesses of their time But the works of authors like Tirta Adhi Soerjo and Soewarsih Djojopoespito are first of all written as literature and literary or stylistic devices cannot be ignored Sears finds substantial evidence of the movement of psychoanalytic theories between Europe and the Indies Indonesia throughout the twentieth century She concludes that far from being only a Jewish or European discourse psychoanalysis is a transnational discourse of desire that has influenced Indies and Indonesian writers for more than a century Psychoanalytic ideas and the suggestion by French psychoanalyst Jean Laplanche and Indonesian author Ayu Utami that memories like literature can move us back and forth in time have inspired Sears thinking about historical archives literature and trauma Soekarno's words haunt this book as he haunts Indonesia's past Situated Testimonies rewrites portions of the literary and social history of Indonesia over a sweep of many decades Historians scholars of literary theory and Indonesianists will all be interested in the book's insights on how colonial and postcolonial novels of the Indies and Indonesia illuminate nationalist narratives and imperial histories
