

The most important part of saying hello...

Common Induction Standards are not an optional extra – they are mandatory for every new adult social care worker in a residential, domiciliary or specialist care environment. The award must be completed within 12 weeks of employment, and compliance is checked in Care Quality Commission (CQC) inspections.

This MindLeaders course matches all of the requirements set by Skills for Care in the 2010 update of the standards. It's the effective and efficient way to achieve full compliance on Common Induction Standards.

- Aimed at people entering social care and those changing roles or employers within adult social care
- Covers all the areas that care workers need to know about before they can work unsupervised

Key Information

Modules: 9 modules for the 8 Common Induction Standards and an extra module on Emergency First Aid. (See the module breakdown overview)

Course duration: Approximately 8 hours in total.

Requirements: No prior knowledge of the care sector or of IT skills needed.

Benefits for Managers and Care Providers

- ✓ High quality, consistent and cost-effective training
- ✓ Fit learning around roles or complete pre-employment
- ✓ Accelerated learner progress
- ✓ Comprehensive reporting for CQC inspection

Key Issues In Special Education Michael Farrell, 2007-04-11 Considerable challenges can face all those involved in teaching children with special educational needs. Complex policy and legislation, bureaucracy, inspection and limited resources can all appear difficult obstacles to those seeking to provide effective tuition. In this highly practical book, Michael Farrell unpicks and clarifies the role of educational standards in today's schools. Drawing extensively on detailed real life case studies, he closely explores such issues as the definition of standards, identifying and providing for special educational needs, assessment and benchmarking, curriculum provision and target setting. The role of the Code of Practice, Special Educational Needs Coordinators, senior managers in schools and students completing initial training courses will find this an invaluable resource which effortlessly simplifies an often complicated process.
