Studying Political Communication and Media in East Asia Florian Schneider, 2025-10-01 Communication is at the heart of politics and certainly in East Asia where vibrant media systems and cultural industries connect with political processes that range from the democratic to autocratic. If we are to understand East Asian societies and 21st century politics more broadly we need to take media and communication seriously. This textbook provides a flexible toolbox of methods and theories for studying political communication. Taking its examples and exercises from Japan, Korea and the Chinese speaking world it walks readers through core issues, media contents and communicative modes. Readers will learn how to systematically analyse the politics of media environments, written and spoken words, images and visual designs, moving image space and spatial interactions, video games and more. The chapters can be used individually or optionally as a playful gamified course that offers learners a first hand experience of how complex information societies incentivise behaviour. World Pass
