

CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL EXAMINATIONS
GCE Advanced Subsidiary Level and GCE Advanced Level

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2013 series

9708 ECONOMICS

9708/41

Paper 4 (Data Response and Essays – Supplement), maximum raw mark 70

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Greer, Heather Elliott, 2019-05-24 Federalism and Social Policy focuses on the crucial question Is a strong and egalitarian welfare state compatible with federalism In this carefully curated collection Scott L Greer Heather Elliott and the contributors explore the relationship between decentralization and the welfare state to determine whether or not decentralization has negative consequences for welfare The contributors examine a variety of federal countries including Spain Canada and the United Kingdom asking four key questions related to decentralization 1 Are there regional welfare states such as Scotland Minnesota etc 2 How much variation is there in the structures of federal welfare states 3 Is federalism bad for welfare 4 Does austerity recentralize or decentralize welfare states By focusing on money and policy instead of law and constitutional politics the volume shows that federalism shapes regional governments and policies even when decentralization exists All That Is Solid Danny Dorling, 2014-02-19 Housing was at the heart of the financial collapse and our economy is now precariously reliant on the housing market In this groundbreaking new book Danny Dorling argues that housing is the defining issue of our times Tracing how we got to our current crisis and how housing has come to reflect class and wealth in Britain All That Is Solid radically shows that the solution to our problems rising homelessness a generation priced out of home ownership is not as is widely assumed building more homes Inequality he argues is what we really need to overcome Corporate Governance and Investment Management Roger M. Barker, Iris H.-Y. Chiu, 2017-12-29 Shareholder engagement with publicly listed companies is often seen as a key means to monitor corporate malpractices In this book the authors examine the corporate governance roles of key institutional investors in UK corporate equity including pension funds insurance companies collective investment funds hedge and private equity funds and sovereign wealth funds They argue that institutions corporate governance roles are an instrument ultimately shaped by private interests and market forces as well as law and regulatory obligations and that policy makers should not readily make assumptions regarding their effectiveness or their alignment with public interest or social good Regulating and Combating Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Nkechikwu Azinge-Egbiri, 2021-03-01 This book analytically reviews the impact of the global anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing AML CFT framework on the compliance trajectory of a number of jurisdictions to this framework The work begins by examining the international financial sector reform and its evolution to inculcate the global framework for AML CFT regulations It challenges the resulting uniform AML

CFT due to its paradoxical impact on the compliance trajectory of African countries and emerging economies ACs EEs This is done through an examination of the pre conditions for effective regulation and compliance drivers for ACs EEs that reveals the behavioural impact of the AML CFT standards on the bloc of countries Through the application of agency theory it explores the relationship between ACs EEs on the one hand and the international financial institutions that formulate disseminate and facilitate compliance with the global framework for AML CFT standards on the other The remaining chapters review empirically the compliance pressures and resulting compliance trajectory of ACs EEs with the AML CFT standards The final part of the book provides a detailed explanation of the compliance challenges of ACs EEs and the legitimacy concerns that facilitate this This book offers a new direction on the impact of global AML CFT standards on ACs EEs and contributes to the understanding of the conditions under which the global standards are likely to facilitate proactive compliance within these blocs of countries As such it will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policy makers working in this area
